

It is located north of the island and mooring can take place only during the day and it is reserved to small boats. This is a scarcely frequented beach, but rich of coral reefs and white sand. At the back, there is the golf course.