

There also are shallows, so it is advisable having a short draught for boats, little yards offer good services and assistance.

The long beach, with fine sand and green palms, represents an oasis of tranquillity and relax, the Creole cooking in a little restaurant and a little tourist village are at visitor's disposition.