

In this micro-archipelago of 15 kmq., there live iguanas which are wildlife protected.

Still alive is the memory of Napoleon's time in the fort that takes the name of the emperor and where has been placed an interesting museum..

From here you can see the Baie de Terre de Haut.