

Because of the volcanic origins of the island, this beach sand is very dark grey, almost anthracite and it is surrounded all around by deep green hills.

The luxury Jalousie Plantation Hotel is plunged into the tropical vegetation, so it is well fitted in this environment.