

It is a small island in front of Clifton, completely surrounded by the coral reef. The white beach, the presence of iguanas and tropical birds give the sensation to the lucky visitor of the island, to be in a beautiful Eden.

There is a big resort, therefore you cannot penetrate in the interior, but only stop on the beach.

Here you can find the atelier of painter Patrick Chevallier, specialized in submarine landscapes painted with the oil technique.