

Little archipelago discovered by Christopher Columbus in the All Saints Day, for long time it has been contended by French and English, presents great panoramic views, beaches protected by great inlets, unpolluted nature both in the Terre de Bas and in the Terre de Haut, the best equipped from the tourist point of view.

Frequent are the connections with Trois Rivières through ferry boats.