

It is located on the north-western coast of the island and offers a large beach, not far from the Cotton House Resort, the known and exclusive tourist site. Extended mooring is not suggested due to the sea conditions, which are not always good.