

It is the most Southern island of the Grenadines, a small sand strip of private property, where anyhow, you can stop briefly. The coral reef also extends around this island. There are two small hills at the interior. The only resort is extremely luxurious.