

The north coast bays are exposed to north-east trade winds and as it is a protected zone anchorage is forbidden: pay attention.

In the middle of the bay, on a little headland, there are the hotel Eden Rock and other important complexes located along the sandy beaches well shaded by the surrounding palm groves.